REBEL ARCHBISHOP AT BAY

FRANCE JOINS BATTAIN TO KEEP GRIP ON CHINA

Will Fight Raids on Shanghai.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
PARIS, Jan. 18.—At a conference with Lord Curzon, British ambassador, and Foreign Minister Briand, France's collaboration with the British decision to defend the Shanghai international concessions against any Chinese faction. Both countries are instructing their troops in China to take measures in accordance with this agreement.

British Sends 1,000 Marines.
LONDON, Jan. 18.—About 1,000 marines are at Changhai, under orders to embark for China at the end of the week. Two Union Castle liners, Kiloran Castle and Kilfarnham Castle, have been chartered by the admiralty for transports and are now en route to Southampton.

In the meantime, active preparations are going on for the defense of the concessions, both at Hankow and Shanghai, and elsewhere should they be attacked. Conference were held yesterday between the chiefs of the navy, army, and air force, and it is reported that London plans to send a large number of airplanes to China for defensive purposes.

British Cruisers Sail Today.
VALENTIA, Malta, Jan. 18.—(P.)—The British fleet, including the battlecruiser Admiral W. H. D. Beatty, the fleet commander, is expected to sail today for the Far East.

French Protest to Peking.
PEKING, Jan. 18.—(U. P.)—France today protested to the central Chinese government against anti-Christian edicts and especially against the anti-French demonstrations at Pootung. France said the French were being persecuted and the Chinese were being killed.

PREDICT SENATE WILL REFUSE OATH TO SMITH

Appointee Is to Ask Seat Today.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
(Picture on back page.)
Washington, D. C., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—Preparations were completed today for the appearance of Frank L. Smith of Illinois in the senate tomorrow to present his credentials as senator by appointment of Gov. Small to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator McKinley.

Republican and Democratic leaders after canvassing the situation stated that Smith will not be allowed to take the oath of office pending consideration of the charges against him.

To Appear Personally.
Mr. Smith, who arrived today, decided tonight to appear on the floor of the senate when his credentials are presented and to remain through the debate on the question of administering the oath.

The senate will meet at 11 a. m. and the Smith case will come up at once. Senator Denen (Rep., Ill.) will present the Smith credentials and ask that Mr. Smith be sworn at once. Senator Reed (Dem., Mo.) then will move that the credentials be referred to the committee on privileges and elections and that the oath be denied pending the decision of the committee on the qualifications of Mr. Smith.

Senator Denen will offer a substitute motion that the oath be administered at once and on that the test of strength between the opponents and supporters of Smith will occur.

Denen to Speak.
Senator Denen has prepared a speech setting forth the constitutional issues involved. He contends that the constitution has definitely named the qualifications of a senator—age, citizenship, and residence in the state he is chosen to represent—and that the senate has no power to go behind the sovereign right of a state to select its representatives in that body.

Opposition senators, however, will be prepared to cite precedents of the right of the senate to be the sole judge of its membership.

Would Limit Deliberations.
An effort will be made to place a limitation on a period of consideration of the charges against Smith by the privileges and elections committee and by the senate. It is proposed that the committee shall report in five days and that the senate dispose of the matter five days after that.

Senator Reed said today that he will bring before the senate in a few days the question of the recall of the Samuel Insull, State's Attorney Crowe and other Illinoisans who refused to answer questions by the senate election investigating committee regarding contributions to campaign funds.

Under the terms of the Supreme court decision in the Mal Dougherty case yesterday the senate can proceed against these witnesses for contempt.

Holds Them in Contempt.
It is Reed's contention that by their refusal to answer certain questions during the investigation held in Chicago these Chicagoans come under the ruling in the Dougherty case, and he will demand that they be brought to Washington to answer for their contempt.

The same rule applies to Thomas J. Cunningham, a Vore supporter, who defied the committee when it was investigating the primary campaign in Pennsylvania.

THERE SEEMS TO BE SOME NERVOUSNESS ABOUT SMITH'S SPEECH

JANITORS' CHIEF, W. F. QUESSE, IS ILL WITH CANCER

William F. Quesse, head of the flat janitors' union, is in a serious condition at the Columbus Memorial hospital. Physicians last night held out slight hope for his recovery.

Quesse, who is about 48, went to a resort in Michigan about a week ago for treatment. His trouble was diagnosed as cancer of the liver. Yesterday an operation was resorted to, but the surgeons who performed it said there was apparently nothing that could be done to save his life.

Quesse is a flat janitor. Quesse conceived the idea of forming a union in 1911. The organization has grown until it now is one of the largest in Chicago. In 1922 he and nine associates were indicted and sentenced to a term of years in prison, but were pardoned by Gov. Small in 1924. Quesse then went back and took up the reins of management.

More Hawks Caught; Capt. Kidd Sails On

BY GENEVIEVE FORBES HERRICK.
Captain Kidd, the original Vox Pop hawk who put his relatives on page one of the newspaper, and into Tammany resolutions in the city council, yesterday found so many of his kin trying to steal his stuff that he lit out over the loop, either disgruntled or amused at the way his country cousins had been snared and trapped, shot at, frozen almost to death, and even being guillotined into silk nets within the last few days.

For himself, Captain Kidd is very much alive, and still booming around. Chicago's first hawk, the one who perched on the Art Institute, there to dine a carte off pigeons, stirred up such a row last week that Tammany offered a reward of $100 for his capture, alive. If he were killed legally, the compensation was to be $50. And there must be proof that it was really Captain Kidd, and not an imposter. Since then there has been a daily round of hawk obituaries or captures.

The Record So Far.
To date the record reads: one peaceful hawk shot and killed in a tree in Garfield park; one half frozen hawk rescued, rather than captured, at the Chicago Beach hotel and one hawk spread on the roof of the Transportation building—when they were an owl, at first mistaken for a hawk, which killed itself by flying against the walls of the County building.

And it still looks as if Capt. Kidd, happy in his reflection that there's safety in numbers, will make his way over the loop today and tomorrow and for the days thereafter in peace and plenty.

It was last Saturday that D. C. Love of 337 South Central Park avenue announced that he, two days earlier, had shot and killed a hawk as it rested on a tree in Garfield park.

Number two came Sunday. Mrs. Josephine Loeffler of the Chicago Beach hotel caught a battered and almost hysterical hawk which had sunk down, exhausted, near her window at the hotel.

Number three came with yesterday's report of the hawk caught on top of the Transportation building.

Tragedy of the Loop Owl.
Late yesterday afternoon a large bird dashed out his brains against the Clark street wall of the County building and fell to the sidewalk. Women screamed; men jumped away. Hundreds gathered.

"It's the hawk," they whispered.

Albert G. Yeager, 7026 South Loomis avenue, a clerk in the board of review office, picked up the dead bird and

Mexican Force Surrounds His Peasant Army

BY JOHN CORNYN.
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
MEXICO CITY, Jan. 18.—The war department announced tonight that Mexican troops had surrounded Archbishop Orozco y Jimenez and his force of Catholic rebels. The troops are closing in and early capture of the fighting bishop, one of the most prominent Catholics in Mexico, is predicted.

The newspaper El Sol says Archbishop Orozco y Jimenez is at San Jose De Gracia, in the state of Jalisco, on the edge of the foothills, not far from La Quemada, where he is rallying Catholic forces who were dispersed in several scraps in the state of Jalisco. Other reports arriving from the interior say the peasants at a flocking to the standard of the archbishop.

Stories were circulated here that Archbishop Orozco y Jimenez had been captured by federal troops and shot, but in army quarters it was asserted today that this was untrue.

Rush Troops to Jalisco.
Although the rebellious Yaquis have again become very active, the government continues to rush troops from Sonora to Jalisco, Durango, and other states in which the new revolt is spreading.

Gen. José Alvarez, chief of President Calles' staff, answering a pastoral letter from the Roman Catholic episcopate, issued two days ago, asserts the government has full proof that the episcopate and Catholic clergy and bishops are behind the present revolt and are its inspirers. Gen. Alvarez declares the episcopate has not only fomented the insurrection but also has disowned its allegiance to the Mexican government and advised all Catholics to do the same.

Catholic Leader Killed.
The war department reports Jesus Martinez, Catholic leader, who has been very active in the states of Michoacan and Queretaro, was killed yesterday in a battle lasting several hours at Huastla. The insurgents, holding a strong position, were dislodged by federal forces, who made five charges before the insurgents retreated into the hills.

The war department reports a battle with insurgents at Puerto de San Antonio, in the state of Queretaro, where the presence of Orozco y Jimenez previously was not reported. Here again the insurgents, breaking into small bands, retreated to the mountains.

Bishop Pascual Dias, secretary of the Catholic episcopate, reported to have been deported by way of Guatemala, apparently never was in that country and the Mexican officials will give no information regarding his whereabouts. Stories again are circulating that the intrepid Indian bishop and fighting priest has met death, but the stories apparently are not founded on facts.

ARBITRATION IN MEXICO SEEN IN SENATE UPSISING

Democrats in Rift; Turn On Heflin.

BY ARTHUR SEAKS HENNING.
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Washington, D. C., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—With discussion of the possibility of war with Mexico raging in congress and with the Protestant churches urging pacific measures, Secretary of State Kellogg announced tonight that the administration is considering arbitration of the oil and alien land controversy with the Mexican government.

Earlier in the day Senator Robinson (Dem., Ark.), Democratic leader of the senate, had offered a resolution declaring it the sense of the senate that the dispute be settled by arbitration. The Democratic leader, who said his resolution is approved by chairman Borah (Rep., Idaho), and Senator Stennis (Dem., Va.), ranking minority member of the foreign relations committee, was clearly actuated by a desire to quell the tumult over charges that the Catholic church is endeavoring to push the United States into war with Mexico in retaliation for the proscription of the clericals by the Mexican government.

Heflin to Denounce.
Senator Robinson presented his resolution at the conclusion of a hectic debate on the Democratic side of the chamber in which Democratic senators, including Bruce Catton, had bitterly denounced Senator Heflin (Dem., Ala.) for advocating the Catholics of seeking to entangle us in war with Mexico.

"It would be exceedingly unfortunate if a religious controversy should become the overshadowing question in dealing with the Central American states or with the efforts to promote the peaceful adjustment of our disputes with Mexico, Nicaragua, or other countries," Senator Robinson said.

"I do not believe any considerable number of the population of the United States is in sympathy with the influences, secret and open, which are exerting themselves to produce a rupture with Mexico."

Kellogg Issues Statement.
When Secretary Kellogg learned of these developments he issued the following statement:

"I have seen the resolution of Senator Robinson. I see nothing inappropriate or untimely in an expression of opinion on this subject by the United States senate and I welcome it. The general principle of arbitration is a principle of the leading policies of this government from the beginning. Our record on that subject speaks for itself. The principle has been recognized in treaties with Mexico. For some time I have been giving very careful consideration to the question of the definite application of the principle of arbitration to the existing controversy with Mexico."

President Calles has intimated a willingness to refer the dispute to arbitration, and Sen. Heflin, the Mexican foreign minister, has proposed adjudication of American confiscation claims by the Mexican-American mixed claims commission.

No Change: Coolidge.
At noon President Coolidge had made it known that there has been no weakening in his policy in dealing with Mexico and Nicaragua, and he made no mention of arbitration.

The President regards our dispute with Mexico exceedingly simple. Stripped of all nonessentials, it is simply a question, in his opinion, whether the property of our citizens in Mexico acquired prior to the 1917 constitution is to be confiscated or otherwise taken without just compensation. The administration is doing everything possible to avert such a result.

Interprets Monroe Doctrine.
As to Nicaragua, the President takes issue with Senator Borah (Rep., Idaho) on the Monroe Doctrine. He holds that the doctrine is involved indirectly because it is necessary for us to protect the nationals of other countries in Latin America in order to obviate the landing of armed forces by their governments in contravention of the Monroe Doctrine.

Other countries recognize this implication of the Monroe Doctrine, and when their nationals are attacked, invariably inquire what the United States is going to do about it. The President defines our purpose in Nicaragua as an effort to compass the situation and avert injury to our interests.

In the case of Nicaragua two powers asked our protection of their nationals and the President decided that we could not afford to refuse to act. In the senate debate the Republic

H. E. BRADLEY, NOTED EXPLORER, ILL IN HOSPITAL

Herbert E. Bradley, African hunter and explorer of note, is in Wesley Memorial hospital, where he is undergoing treatment for a recurrence of tropical fever which he contracted on a trip through the Congo some years ago. It was said today that Bradley, 54, was resting well and that his temperature had fallen almost to normal.

The disease is the same that killed Dr. Carl Akeley, by Mr. Bradley's physicians. Dr. James Walker and Dr. Harry A. Richter, believe that the fever has been checked in his case.

When Mr. Bradley was stricken three years ago, his wife, Mary Hastings Bradley, gave her blood twice in transfusion operations.

Locomotive Topples; Two Enginemen Severely Burned

An engineer and a fireman were severely burned last night when a Nickel Plate locomotive was derailed in the yards at 8th street and St. Lawrence avenue. The engine was tilted and coal from the firebox, mingled with steam, poured over the enginemen. Michael Rockwell, 1022 East 38th street, the engineer, was almost unconscious when the fireman, Edward Martin, 7488 Lowe avenue, dragged him out. Martin extinguished Rockwell's blazing clothing by rolling him in the snow. Both men were taken to the Mercy hospital.

DAILEY BEGS FOR SQUARE DEAL FOR CHICAGO VOTERS

Reapportionment Supreme Issue in Illinois.

BY PARKE BROWN.
Springfield, Ill., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—Senator John Dailey of Peoria, told the fifty-fifth general assembly today that reapportionment of the state is without doubt the supreme moral issue in Illinois.

In presenting his joint resolution for a remapping of the senatorial districts, for which Chicago has pleaded for years, the downstate, who today assumed leadership in the fight, filed a statement declaring that to ignore the moral mandate would be to sow the seeds of anarchy and disaster.

His resolution to create a special committee giving equal representation to Cook county and the rest of the state, and instructing it to report within sixty days, was referred to the executive committee of the senate. There the first skirmish will appear probably next week.

Haenschel Also Has Resolution.
There was no discussion of the Dailey resolution, but Senator Herman J. Haenschel, of Chicago, one of the leaders in the last session, reintroduced his skeleton reapportionment bill and also a resolution somewhat similar to Dailey's.

"This is keeping a campaign going," said Senator Haenschel, "but I want to say that I'll work with Senator Dailey."

Apparently the same attitude prevailed on the house side, as such men as Representative Elmer J. Schnackenberg, who has consistently fought for Chicago, refrained from presenting any resolution or bill.

Enlightened by Members' Oaths.
"This resolution," said Senator Dailey, "is the initial step in the performance of a duty solemnly enjoined by the constitution and emphasized by our oaths of office, requiring its support—a duty unequivocally declared by our Supreme court to be 'clear and unmistakable.'"

"To ignore this moral mandate means sowing the seeds of anarchy in the very sanctuary of law. If we, who are charged by the constitution, with its enforcement, substitute our own individual opinions for the peremptory duty thus imposed, the private citizen may with equal force substitute his judgment for the law enacted by us."

"I am unaware of Chicago legislators being opposed to downstate interests. Chicago, through its representatives at Springfield, has never failed to support liberal appropriations for the advancement of agricultural and other downstate interests."

Geographical Lines Bad.
"Normally legislators do not form geographical divisions on economic issues. In such matters the interests of our entire citizenry are identical. But if Chicago's constitutional right to legislative representation is persistently ignored, sectional animosity and reprisals are certain to ensue."

"Distinct phases of geographic consciousness will develop. Chicago and downstate political parties will arise, stressing local grievances, subordinating or submerging economic, legislative, and governmental issues."

"Ultimately Chicago, thus circumvented, will be able to elect all state officers, downstate will control the general assembly in contravention of the constitution—a governmental impasse will thus result—a condition disastrous to the extreme to the interests of Chicago and downstate alike."

The Dailey resolution proposed the

WEDDING DATE SET, NORTHWESTERN CO-ED BREAKS ENGAGEMENT

Miss Gwyneth Ruth Thomas of 1718 Montrose avenue and Leslie L. Ogilvie of Kankakee, both Northwestern university juniors who became engaged the night of Northwestern's celebration of a championship football season, will not be married Feb. 5, as announced.

Nor will they be married at all according to all indications at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. J. Morrison Thomas, the girl's parents. With plans made for the ceremony to take place in the Ravenswood Congregational church, of which Mr. Thomas is pastor, with a number of Miss Thomas' Alpha Phi sorority sisters chosen as bridesmaids, and a number of Ogilvie's Phi Kappa Sigma friends invited as ushers, everything suddenly was halted yesterday.

Mrs. Thomas telephoned to the girls and told them their services as bridesmaids would not be needed, and that her daughter had gone out of town for a visit. The report of the broken engagement was verified last night by the Rev. Mr. Thomas.

Young Ogilvie and some of the men from his fraternity met Miss Thomas, whom he had known for some time, with her friends in an Evanston restaurant the night of the football rally. His room-mate and a Phi Kappa Sigma pledge are said to have flipped a coin, not to see which should marry Miss Thomas, but to see which should serve as best man at the wedding.

Next day Ogilvie followed up his earlier proposal with a call at Miss Thomas' boarding house. Within a week their engagement was announced.

creation of a commission of twelve members—six senators and six representatives—each six including three members from Cook county and three members from the rest of the state, to be appointed by Lieut. Gov. Fred E. Sterling, president of the senate, and by Speaker Robert M. Schick, of the lower house.

"It shall be the duty of said committee to organize immediately upon appointment," says the text, "and to proceed to draw a bill apportioning the state according to population as determined by the federal census of 1920 and in the manner prescribed by Section 9 of Article III. of the constitution of the state of Illinois. Said committee shall report such bill to the general assembly not later than six days after appointment."

ACTION DEFERRED ON TERMINABLE PERMIT REPORT

Curran Hasn't Read It, He Tells Commission.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—Action on the report of the state terminable permit commission was deferred this afternoon for another week. After a delay and short session of the commission, it was announced by Chairman Burr that committee assignments in both senate and house required so much of the attention of commission members that the desired discussion of the report could not be held today.

It also was deemed prudent to delay the report, according to Burr, because of the lack of definite attitude on the part of certain members of the commission. Seven members of the commission have indicated that they are willing to sign the report, and are said already to have done so. These seven are: Lieut. Gov. Fred Sterling, Senators Burr, Wright, Dailey, Keesenoff and Hughes, and former Senator Eastington.

Those who have not signed are Senator McDermott, Speaker Scholes and Representatives Curran, Cutler, Krump, Roe, France, and Ryan, and former Representative Abbey.

Wants Time to Study Report.
It is reported that Representative Curran took the lead in urging delay. He explained at that time that he wanted time to study the report. It is reported that former Mayor William Hale Thompson has become interested in the subject of terminable permits.

No member of the commission would admit that he is interested in the views of Mr. Thompson on the utility franchise policy in the state; but two Chicago members said they would like to know definitely the attitude of the Chicago city council on the subject.

According to the present program, the report of the commission will be little more than an endorsement of the principle of terminable permits. After urging repeal of the twenty year limitations on utility franchises, the report as now drafted recommends "appropriate legislation authorizing the issuance of terminable permits for public utilities operating in this state, under such terms and conditions as may be deemed wise by the general assembly."

One member of the commission said that he would prefer a report which would name the "terms and conditions," because he wanted terminable permits issued by the city of Chicago, and is also given the power to supervise and regulate later the utilities.

Home Rule Doubtful.
Gossip among the legislators says that the general assembly probably will not confer specific home rule on Chicago. If, however, the pressure for it is strong enough, it is predicted by one senator that a commission might be created for the metropolitan district of Chicago, embracing Cook, DuPage, Lake, Kane, and Will counties.

Another member of the commission predicted that the report as now drafted would be approved unanimously, but that along with it will be a statement on home rule as a separate subject. He added that among those who have not yet signed the report he had been unable to find one who is opposed personally to the principle of terminable permits. He is certain there will be a real vote Tuesday, when the commission is scheduled to meet again, and that no draft of the bill would be recommended to either house for consideration.

M'ANDREW SAYS BETTER PROMOTE PUPILS ON TRIAL

Encouragement was given yesterday to pupils who found themselves with a grade of seventy-nine that should be eighty, and so were resigned to the prospect of repeating during the new semester the work they did the last.

Supt. William McAndrew, as Feb. 1 approaches, the start of the second term, informed principals that wherever possible they should advance pupils to "avoid the expense in money and in the lives of children by needless repetition of grades."

Declaring the teaching staff adequate, he added: "Every student of educational movements realizes that promotion as a reward or the withholding of promotion as a punishment has been supplanted by placing children in grades where the greatest benefit to them is likely."

Of those forced to repeat work, he said, "68 to 73 per cent, of repeaters do no better work the second time. The small percentage that does better work at second attempt may do so rather because of gaining mental maturity, due to their increased age, than because of repeating their grades."

"The experiment of trial promotions of children of unsatisfactory ratings, subsequent special efforts, by co-operation with parents, and the aid of brighter children, is fraught with such promise to you, as a progressive schoolmaster, you will, I am sure, be desirous to undertake it."

RECEIVERS CHAPLIN LIFTED

RECEIVERSHIP ON CHAPLIN WEALTH LIFTED BY JUDGE

Court Acts on Motion of Actor's Attorney.

BY GEORGE SHAFER.

Hollywood, Cal., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—Charlie Chaplin today launched his legal fight to defend his name and wealth from his wife and effected a temporary lifting of the receivership upon his property.

Attorney Gavin McNamara appeared before Judge Walter Guerin this morning. Explaining that he was acting for the Chaplin Studio, Inc., and its stockholders, and not as personal counsel for the absent defendant, McNamara held before the judge a motion of appeal from the receivership. Unlike yesterday's motion, which was presented under the same lawyer's name before the state supreme court in San Francisco and denied, McNamara made a mandatory order under California law that the receivers be removed pending hearing of the appeal. This will take place in the supreme court and presumably not for three or four months.

Open Chaplin's Safes.
Mrs. Lita Grey Chaplin was disappointed by the inventory of three safes, two of them in the Chaplin studio and one in her husband's room in the Beverly Hills mansion, which she quit last Nov. 30.

The inventory, conducted by Herman Spitsell and W. B. Gilbert, receivers, disclosed little except copies of some old film, books of the Chaplin studio corporation, some personal memoranda of the actor, and miscellaneous papers. Nothing was found which could be converted by Mrs. Chaplin in addition to the $17,000 paid under writ several days ago in Hollywood banks.

Chaplin Still Ill.
New York, Jan. 18.—(Special.)—Charlie Chaplin, confined to the home of his lawyer by a nervous breakdown, was "getting along nicely" today, although his lawyer, Nathan Burkan, and his physician, Dr. Gustav J. E. Teck, differed concerning the extent of the film comedian's illness. The doctor said that Chaplin would be able to leave Mr. Burkan's home within ten days.

"He'll be out in a day or two," said Mr. Burkan. "And when both temperature and pulse are back to normal Mr. Chaplin will return to California and combat his wife's charges."

BURY POLITICAL STRIFE AS MOODY SUCCEEDS "MA"

Austin, Tex., Jan. 18.—(AP)—Amidst the bitterness of political strife were buried today when Dan Moody, 53, was inaugurated governor, succeeding Miriam A. Ferguson, the state's first woman executive. Moody took up the governorship from the hands of Mrs. Ferguson, a grandmother, before a vast crowd. The new governor and the retiring executive occupied places side by side in the center of a platform built under the arch of the south entrance to the capitol. Former Gov. James E. Ferguson, husband of Mrs. Ferguson, sat on one side of the platform. Five former governors were present.

"I shall not dwell at length on the accomplishments of my administration. My record speaks for itself. It cannot be changed," Mrs. Ferguson said.

"If in the passion and prejudice of the hour my mistakes are magnified and my achievements are minimized, I shall find consolation in the fact that I am not the first governor who has been made to suffer the same penalty as the price of political honor."

She ended by asking the support of the people for Moody.

CROWE, ASSAILED BY LITSINGER, CITES A MURDER

Rival's Nephew Stole Vote Box, He Charges.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

Majority politics steamed itself up into a choleric humor yesterday, as more skeletons were dragged out and rattled by the Republican faction.

Edward R. Litsinger, the Densen-Brundage pick for mayor, drew from the Thompson camp a few bon mots by State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe, Mr. Litsinger, the evening before, had charged Mr. Crowe with "party treachery" last November, and asked his audience to "purify the party" by trying the law on Messrs. Crowe, Thompson, Galpin, et al.

When State's Attorney Crowe read this, he pressed the buzzer and bellowed the ear of the stenographer with the following:

"While Mr. Litsinger is depicting the use of gunmen and murderers in primaries, I would like to remind him that Virgil Litsinger, who stole a ballot box and is now wanted for murder, is his nephew and not mine. If he will tell me of his nephew's whereabouts, it will reduce by one the list of untried murder cases about which he complains."

"The Virgil Litsinger—spell it with a 's'—I refer to is one member of the candidate's family who did not change the spelling of his German name during the world war, but in the interests of his uncle's faction he stole the ballot box in the Twentieth precinct of the Twelfth ward in the primary election of 1924, and in order to purify the ballots threw the ballot box into the drainage canal."

"This same Virgil Litsinger on Feb. 14, 1926, shot to death Clarence Glenn in a soft drink parlor at 2901 West 35th street and is now a fugitive from justice."

Col. Noble B. Judah, chairman of the Litsinger campaign, announced during the day that he will leave for Washington today to confer with Senator Densen. With Mrs. Judah, the colonel is to attend a dinner at the White House tomorrow evening.

Reports were current that Col. Judah has been offered appointment as United States district attorney to succeed Edwin A. Olson, whose term expired Jan. 1.

On the Democratic side, Mayor Dever having no opposition for re-nomination, affairs are quiet, but great competition is developing over the places on the city ticket as running mate for Mr. Dever. City Clerk Al F. Gorman is expected to be re-nominated without a fight, but for city treasurer a small forest of lightning rods has been struck up.

Ald. Stanley Adamkiewicz of the Thirty-first ward called on Mayor Dever with word that the Polish Democratic leaders are considering the names of eight Polish citizens and today they expect to decide on one name to present to the managing committee.

August J. Kowalski, vice president of the Northwestern Trust and Savings bank, is said by the alderman to be leading.

"In twenty-two wards Chicago has 160,000 Polish voters, 50 per cent of whom are Democrats," said Ald. Adamkiewicz to the mayor, "and everybody wants to get on the ticket because they think you are bound to win."

Ald. B. A. Cronson of the Fourth ward was endorsed last night by the Republican organization, including Robert Levy, County Treasurer George F. Harding, John H. Passmore, clerk of the Criminal court, and Assessor Charles Krutchoff.

Ald. Arvey Indorsed for Re-election in 24th Ward

Ald. Jacob M. Arvey of the 24th ward was indorsed for reelection last night at a joint meeting of the Democratic ward organization and businessmen of the ward held at 3617 West Roosevelt road. The same meeting also indorsed the candidacy of Mayor William E. Dever for reelection. Michael Rosenberg, drainage trustee, and Mitchell C. Robin, clerk of the Probate court, both made speeches in praise of Ald. Arvey.

BOOST B. J. KANNE FOR ALDERMAN OF FOURTH WARD

Benjamin J. Kanne, a lawyer, has been indorsed as candidate for alderman of the Fourth ward by the Democratic organization in the halliwick which intends to make a strong fight to capture the seat in the city council now held by Ald. Bert A. Cronson.

Joseph P. Geary, the Democratic ward committeeman, and Edward J. Kelly, president of the South Park board, who resides in the ward, are particularly interested in Mr. Kanne's candidacy. They hope they will be able to obtain a majority for him at the February election, so that it will not be necessary for him to run again at the April election. It is expected that the opposition to Kanne will be divided.

FOLLIES BEAUTY SKIPS GERMANY, OWING $25,000

Girl in Frank Tinney Case May Be U. S. Bound.

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.
(Chicago Tribune Staff Writer.)
BERLIN, Jan. 18.—With the same secrecy that veiled her flight from New York, Imogene Wilson, American Follies beauty, who called herself Imogene Robertson in Europe, has slipped out of Germany, leaving in her wake dozens of creditors' bills totaling $25,000. Before leaving Berlin for Munich, from where she disappeared, Imogene confided to friends that she had signed a contract with United Artists and was returning home aboard the Majestic this week.

Homesickness has been a favorite word with Imogene during the last twelve months while she was working with German film companies. She came to Berlin as a refugee, adopting the name of Robertson to hide her identity and forget her fight with Frank Tinney, the comedian, and other scandals. The beauty secured her place in the German movies. She strayed from one company to another, always hoping to obtain more funds.

To Forget Homesickness.
It was to forget her homesickness, Imogene said, that she was racing from party to party, calling for more and more speed. It was to forget her loneliness that she made money slip through her fingers, according to the dressmakers, jewelers, furriers and other creditors, who advance tales of her wild extravagance. It was her passing fame for the Italian film operator, Frangueli, that devoured the money she made, say gossip.

More than once the exiled former Follies girl, who made a minimum of $20,000 a year, found herself unable to pay her rent and was ejected summarily on twelve hours' notice. But she pursued her because she had created her jewels to protect them from seizure, claiming that through her inability to speak German she had failed to understand the promises she had made.

After she vowed to pay her debts before leaving Germany, friends of Imogene endeavored to calm the anxious creditors. Imogene was constantly under the care of a nurse, rambling deliriously when addressed over the phone. She was broken down under the strain of work and money worries.

Mystery Man Mentioned.
The man of mystery mentioned by the movie gossip, Frangueli, who was expelled from Germany charged with sexual delinquencies, succeeded in smuggling himself into Munich to visit Imogene. The day after his arrival Imogene collected $5,000 from a German film company, carefully paid her bills in Munich, and disappeared, supposedly going to Switzerland, Paris or home.

CLABAUGH FINDS BOY, 15, IN PENITENTIARY; ASKS WRIT FOR HIM

The Joliet penitentiary is no place for a 15 year old boy, even if he did plead guilty to the crime of robbery, according to Hinton G. Clabaugh, supervisor of the board of pardons and paroles, who yesterday advised the boy's attorney to sue out a writ of habeas corpus in his behalf. The boy is Harry Horowitz, alias Harry Lubinski, received at the penitentiary on July 30, 1926, to serve a 3 to 20 year term.

Horowitz was made a prison messenger boy. When Clabaugh noticed him he told P. Emory Lyons, a welfare worker, to make an investigation and it was discovered that he was only 15 when sentenced. His mother is in Elgin asylum and his father dead.

Mr. Clabaugh said he had called the case to the attention of Judge William N. Gemmill before whom the boy was tried.

PRISON WARDEN WOULD JUNK NEW CIRCULAR CELLS

Complains of "Model" New Buildings.

Although expert penologists have pronounced the state penitentiary at Jolietville the last word in prison construction, Warden Elmer J. Green and John D. Walker, state supervisor of prisons, are going to demand changes in the future building program.

The two officials announced they would ask the assembly for $2,000,000 to build oblong buildings and block type cells in place of the circular type cells which experts decided upon after an exhaustive study of penal institutions the world over. The two officials will appear before the appropriations committee of the legislature next Monday, with Chauncey Jenkins, head of the state department of public welfare.

Built by Commission.
The Stateville prison construction was placed in charge of a commission consisting of the late John Lambert of Joliet, James A. Patton of Evanston and Ira C. Copley of Aurora.

The circular type cell was decided upon, the commission said, because every feature of the modern institution is embodied in this type. The circular form gives each cell at least two hours of sunlight daily.

Three of the circular cell houses have been completed and a fourth is nearly finished. The remaining four left to be built will be abandoned for the old block style if the prison officials are successful next week.

The officials said that they were dissatisfied with the circular cell houses because the prisoners could watch every movement of the guard on duty, while the guard could not keep tabs on the prisoners' movements at all times.

SENATE REJECTS LAUSANNE PACT; 6 VOTES NEEDED

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Washington, D. C., Jan. 18.—[Special.]—The long pending Lausanne treaty with Turkey failed of ratification today by the senate.

Defeat of the treaty came when proponents on a roll call fell six short of the necessary two-thirds vote. The vote was 50 to 34. An affirmative vote of 50 would have been necessary for its ratification.

Debate for Many Hours.
The action, which took place after many hours of debate in executive session during the last two weeks, ended the matter, so far as the present congress is concerned.

The rejection was a defeat for the administration which had sponsored the treaty. Senator Borah (Rep.-Idaho), chairman of the committee on foreign relations, supported the treaty, while Senator Swanson (Dem., Va.), ranking minority member of the foreign relations committee, and Senator King (Dem., Utah) led the attacks upon it.

Treaty Signed in 1923.
The treaty was signed at Lausanne, Switzerland, on Aug. 6, 1923. It gives to the United States every maritime, trade, and political right in Turkey for American nationals that is enjoyed by the nationals of other countries. Virtually all other nations have approved a similar treaty and there have been warnings of retaliatory action upon American interests in Turkey if the treaty failed of ratification.

Opponents of the treaty have contended that it gives up historic guarantees of justice for Americans in Turkey without securing adequate safeguards in so far as they affect Turkey who returns to their native land; that it fails adequately to protect the charitable and philanthropic enterprises of Americans in Turkey, and that it abandons Armenia, notwithstanding pledges that its independence would be secured.

Proved a Similar Treaty and there have been warnings of retaliatory action upon American interests in Turkey if the treaty failed of ratification.

ROOSEVELT FIRES VERBAL BARRAGE UPON AL SMITH

Syracuse, N. Y., Jan. 18.—[Special.]—"Put up or shut up" was the verbal challenge hurled at Gov. Al Smith tonight by Col. Theodore Roosevelt, who charged the executive with responsibility for policies pointing to a $35,000,000 deficit in the state treasury and the indefinite postponement of hydroelectric development. He charged that the governor sought to capture the credit for school relief and tax reduction, while he jockeyed the state legislature into passage of new tax levies.

Col. Roosevelt, who spoke at a dinner tendered to Clarence King, chairman of the Onondaga Republican county committee, asserted the Smith water power program was a "glittering generality." He advised Republican leaders to tell the governor they no longer would "hold the bag." He accused Gov. Smith of employing "petit trickery which has caused hundreds of thousands of citizens to vote for him while he laughed in his sleeve."

HOFFMAN TAKES JOB OF ASSISTANT COUNTY FORESTER

Former Sheriff Peter M. Hoffman was appointed yesterday by the county board to the post of assistant forester in charge of the county forest preserves.

Two weeks' vacation from politics was enough for the former sheriff after nearly thirty years spent in public office, he said. He is understood to be planning a political comeback.

"This job is just right for me," Mr. Hoffman said. "I'm 43 years old, but I have been active all my life and I have felt the loss of something to do since I resigned as sheriff. My doctor tells me that I must remain active and take the open air. I was born in what is now the forest preserves and I will throw myself heart and soul into the task of developing them."

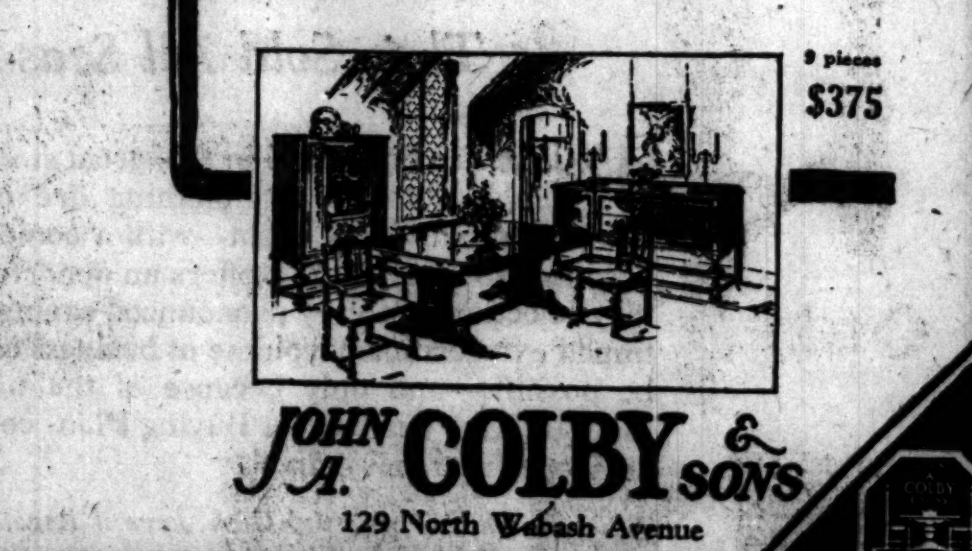

Typoid Fever Closes Kindergarten in Evanston.
The Dewey Kindergarten school, Evanston, with an enrollment of 45 children, has been closed on orders of Dr. Mary Baird, the school physician, because three cases of scarlet fever were discovered. The first case of fever was reported Friday. At that time the nature of the malady was not certain, but Monday two other children became ill. The school will remain closed at least during the incubation period of the fever, which usually is one week.

Typical values from COLBY'S semi-annual sale

Right now the widest selection is available in this great Colby event. We show only two examples here, but similar values prevail throughout our extensive stocks. Just compare the merchandise and the price with any others you've seen.

$98.50 is about $50.00 below the usual price of this large, comfortable armchair of Regency design. It has finely carved woodwork of solid walnut and a cover of rarely beautiful Flemish loomed tapestry. To examine the chair is to appreciate that here is a real value. (We also have this chair in a fine French floral tapestry.)

Many a home-maker has looked for the opportunity offered in this dining-room set. A superbly built set, in open grain is finish over hand matched woods, including straight walnut, butt walnut, figured maple, and gum. During this sale we offer nine pieces (table, sideboard, armchair, 5 side chairs and server) for the startlingly low price of $375.00.

COMPLETE JURY TO TRY 9 BOYS FOR MURDER

Defense Opposes Use of Youths' Confessions.

CRIMINAL COURT.
James L. Lach and Barney Frederickson, charged with the murder of Stanley Ciesla, were sentenced to one to twenty years in the penitentiary by Judge Harry B. Miller.

The hanging jury which is to determine the fate of nine boys of high school age, who are charged before Judge John J. Sullivan with the murder of Stanley Ciesla, was completed yesterday afternoon. Considerable difficulty was experienced in getting twelve men who would agree to vote a hanging verdict against such young defendants, the eldest of whom is 19.

After the jury had been completed the defense started a fight to keep out confessions made by the defendants in which they admitted that Ciesla came to his death as a result of rough treatment by them when he resisted their attempt at robbery.

The jury was excused while Judge Sullivan began an inquiry into the constitution of the defense that the police mistreated the boys in order to obtain the confession.

Assistant State's Attorneys Louis Coleman and Scott Hogan argued that to have the judge rule out the confessions would be a serious handicap to the prosecution. The state's case depends upon the admission of the confessions because there are no identifying witnesses, the prosecutors said.

A decision on the question is expected to be given today after the jury testifies as to the methods used to obtain the confessions.

The defendants are Felix Sebastian, Vincent Madala, Vincent Welles, John Jaworski, Andrew Kosowski, Edward Glesman, Matthew Busckel, John Rastell and Henry MacGreen.

HULL DRAFTS PLAN FOR MEDICINAL RUM TO FOIL BOOTLEGGERS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
Washington, D. C., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—Representative W. E. Hull, (Rep., Ill.), submitted a draft of his plan for government control of the manufacture and distribution of medicinal whiskey to the house ways and means committee today. The plan which is offered as a substitute to that devised by Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Andrews, would, according to Mr. Hull, prevent bootleggers from securing a monopoly of the legitimate medicinal whiskey business.

Under the Hull plan, two federal corporations would be created—one to purchase existing stocks of medicinal liquor from private owners and a second to contract with distillers for the manufacture of new stocks and control the distribution of the various spirits to retail druggists. Each of the corporations would be capitalized for $250,000 subscribed by the federal treasury.

The first corporation would be dissolved as soon as all of the present stocks of liquor had been purchased and resold to the distributing corporation. The second corporation in its contracts with distillers would be entitled to allow the latter profits not exceeding ten cents a gallon over the cost of production, eight cents a barrel for storage and 50 cents a case for bottling. The whiskey would be labeled by the corporation which would also fix the retail price to allow a reasonable profit to the druggist.

ACQUIT YOUTH OF CRIME FOR WHICH PAL WAS HANGED

Otto Hacker, 19, was acquitted by a jury yesterday of the murder of Policeman Edward C. Finnegan, for which his pal, Richard Evans, was hanged recently. The trial in Judge William J. Lindsay's court took just one day, the same as that of Evans. Policeman Finnegan was taking the two youths to the station last March in a stolen auto when Evans suddenly shot him from the rear seat. Hacker was riding in the front with the policeman. After the crime the youths fled to Texas. Hacker testified for the state against Evans.

DOCTOR BEATEN BY 3 HAS RIVAL PHYSICIAN HELD

Dr. Harry Heiss, a physician with offices at 4753 Broadway, was arrested yesterday on a warrant charging him with conspiracy procured by Dr. Earle C. Mitchell, 5179 North Clark street. Dr. Mitchell says he was beaten by three men in his office Monday night and he charges they were hired by Dr. Heiss to slug him following Dr. Mitchell's efforts to have Dr. Heiss evicted from the Lake View Bank building. William Kofny, 19 years old, a pugilist, and two companions, Henry Norton and Henry Ross, all of Maywood, according to Dr. Mitchell, entered his office as patients and attacked him. Dr. F. H. Schleish heard the commotion, ran into the hall and captured the men. Serg. Frank Cunningham of the Sheffield avenue police station says the three admitted the slugging and charged Dr. Heiss gave them $10.

HOUSE PUTS O. K. ON FUNDS FOR AN ARMY OF 118,750

Budget Bureau Economy Loses Another Round.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Washington, D. C., Jan. 18.—[Special.]—Budget bureau economy lost another round to adequate national defense today when the house, sitting as a committee of the whole to consider the war department supply bill, approved appropriations for a standing army of not less than 118,750 enlisted men.

Today's action, still to be ratified by a record vote, increases the enlisted personnel of the army from the 115,000 limit recommended by the budget bureau and adds $216,650 to the bureau's estimate for pay in order to provide for the 3,750 additional men.

Flight Down "Little Army."
The approval of the increase was voted after a lively skirmish between "little army" and "big army" advocates—the former led by Representative La Guardia (Rep., N. Y.), a world war veteran, and the latter group backed up by a unanimous report of the appropriations committee recommending substantial increases for a number of army activities which the budget bureau would have curtailed.

Representative La Guardia warned the house that he and his associates will invoke every parliamentary move at their disposal to block the passage of a bill overriding the budget bureau and child the Republican majority for failing to stand behind the bureau, which he declared, is "the President's financial spokesman."

Economy Losses by 66 to 22.
He asserted that appropriations for an army of more than 115,000 are "wasted money" and challenged any one to justify the necessity for an army of even 115,000.

SALVATION ARMY MAKES PLEA FOR ODD JOB MEN

The Salvation Army yesterday renewed its appeal to employers who can use the services of odd job men, willing to work before they eat.

To facilitate the task of the men who seek assistance in their day to day livelihood, the army has caused to be printed cards that can be worn by the job applicants, which read: "I want work. I am hungry, but I am willing to work before I eat."

Careless Washing Spoils Children's Hair

Any child can have beautiful hair—healthy and luxuriant. It is simply a matter of shampooing.

Proper shampooing makes the hair soft and silky. It brings out all the real life and lustre, all the natural wave and color, and leaves it fresh looking, glossy and bright.

While children's hair must have frequent and regular washing to keep it beautiful, fine young hair and tender scalps cannot stand the harsh effect of ordinary soaps. The free alkali in ordinary soaps soon dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and ruins it.

That is why thoughtful mothers everywhere now use Mulsified Coconut Oil Shampoo. This clear, pure and entirely greaseless product brings out all the real beauty of the hair and cannot possibly injure.

Two or three teaspoonsful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather which cleanses thoroughly and rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust and dirt. It leaves the hair soft and easy to manage and makes it fairly sparkle with new life, gloss and lustre.

You can get Mulsified Coconut Oil Shampoo at any drug store.

A four-ounce bottle lasts for months.

VETO FORECAST WITH CRUISERS IN NAVAL BILL

President Said to Be Firm in Opposition.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Washington, D. C., Jan. 18.—[Special.]—That President Coolidge may veto the naval appropriation bill if it comes to the White House carrying a provision for the construction of additional cruisers this year is the interpretation placed upon White House utterances today.

The President, it was stated, has not changed his opposition to new cruiser construction and looks upon the action yesterday of the appropriations committee of the senate in restoring the item calling for three additional cruisers as an unmistakable step toward precipitating the United States into naval armament race.

Denies Other Nations Violate Pact.
Charges that the other signatory powers to the Washington arms treaties have violated the spirit of the agreements were denied at the White House. The President, it was stated, considers that these charges are based upon a misconception of the terms of the treaty.

The President pointed out that the 5-5-1 ratio applied to capital ships and that there is no restriction on the building of cruisers limited to 10,000 tons. It was emphasized that the President would take action immediately if he considered that the provisions of the agreement were broken.

Lays It to Rivalry Spirit.
Desire to push the United States into the naval armament race is regarded by the President as the only reason seriously advanced for commencing new cruiser construction this year. He made it clear that he has no intention of abandoning his policy of discouraging naval armament competition.

The President believes the cruiser program should be postponed for financial reasons. He made it clear that he would not oppose construction of additional cruisers next year when the aircraft carriers are costing $50,000,000 and that five cruisers are now under construction in the United States.

SAYS MISSISSIPPI RIVER CITIES NEED LAKE DIVERSION

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Washington, D. C., Jan. 18.—[Special.]—Lake Michigan water diverted at Chicago by the sanitary district raises the level of the Mississippi river an average of one foot from the mouth of the Illinois river to the Gulf of Mexico, witnesses testified today before Charles Evans Hughes, special master for the supreme court in the Chicago water diversion controversy. This testimony was read into the record over the objections of counsel for Wisconsin, New York, and four other lake states now fighting to cut off the water diversion on the ground that it interferes with navigation by lowering lake levels.

Robert Isham Randolph, Chicago engineer and engineering counsel for the Mississippi valley states, was the principal witness. He testified that in his judgment the Chicago diversion raised the Mississippi river low water level 1.5 feet at St. Louis and from six inches to a foot at most all the way to New Orleans.

Arbitrary stopping of the Chicago diversion would make a poison tank of the sanitary district channels, Mr.

Randolph said, not only endangering the health of residents of that section but jeopardizing the water supply of all Mississippi river cities as far south as St. Louis. Bacteria, he said, would thrive in Chicago's sewage and later pollute the St. Louis water supply.

Mr. Randolph, over the objections of the complainant states, introduced a new angle in the case when he testified that the improvement of the Ohio river for navigation has resulted in lowering the Mississippi river at low water periods.

ALLEN, KILLS HIMSELF.
Dependent because of continued ill health, Joseph Vermilion, 55, took poison on January 1 at his home, 6821 Cleveland avenue. He died yesterday at the county hospital.

SIMONY CHARGE BARS PASTOR OF
LONDON CHURCHAccused of Dickering for Rich Parish.

BY JOHN STEELE.
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
(Copyright, 1927, by The Chicago Tribune.)

LONDON, Jan. 18.—The ceremonies of installing the Rev. James Bullock as pastor of ancient St. Peter's upon Cornhill church were postponed without warning today because a charge of simony had been preferred against him.

Hundreds of members of the congregation and clergymen, went to the church for the ceremonies, but found a notice tacked on the door saying they had been postponed through the order of the acting bishop. No reason was given. The Rev. Mr. Bullock was present to greet friends. He announced that he had nothing to say.

It was revealed that the charge of simony had been preferred because the clergyman assented to a real estate deal in church property.

And What Is Simony?
The term simony is derived from Simon Magus, who offered money to the apostles for the power of the Holy Ghost to work miracles. It is legally defined as a "corrupt agreement to present any one with an ecclesiastical benefice for reward."

The incumbency of St. Peter's is within the city corporation's right to bestow, and five clergymen recently were considered for the vacancy. It pays $1,000 ($5,000) annually.

The church also possesses a piece of land, which has been leased to a bank. The lease expires shortly, and much money will be derived from the new lease.

Up to Bishop of London.
The city corporation asked all the candidates if they would consent, if appointed, to devote the extra revenue derived from the new lease, to all the poorer parishes of the city of London. All consented, including the Rev. Mr. Bullock. This, it is claimed, constitutes bargaining for a church with a benefice and is, therefore, simony, under the church law.

Meanwhile, the Rev. Mr. Bullock holds the job, but cannot officiate until the bishop of London returns to England.

St. Peter's was the seat of the first archbishopric of England. Dick Whittington conveyed the patronage of the rectory to the mayor of London in 1411. The old church was so damaged in the great London fire of 1666 that it was pulled down and rebuilt by Sir Christopher Wren.

DR. NORRIS ILL;
HIS TRIAL TO BE RESUMED TODAY

Austin, Tex., Jan. 18.—(Special).—While the Texas capital was joyfully celebrating today the inauguration of Dan Moody as governor, the Rev. J. Frank Norris was lying ill in his hotel, thus postponing until tomorrow the continuance of defense evidence in his trial for the murder of D. E. Chippa.

Dr. Norris' attorneys said his illness was not serious and they expected him to court tomorrow. The defense will conclude in a day or two. Dr. Norris may go on the stand as a witness.

Mayer H. C. Mescham of Fort Worth and two persons who were nearby when Chippa was shot and killed by the pastor, have been called. The two are a boy, Karl Glase, and Miss Jane Hartwell, the pastor's secretary.

Development of the alleged conspiracy to persecute the minister, on the part of the Fort Worth political and business group that he had antagonized for years, is expected to be the next phase of the case. The state has one or two important rebuttal witnesses. Arguments to the jury are expected to take two days.

ROCK FALL, KILLER MEN
West Frankfort, Ill., Jan. 18.—(Special).—A fall of too rock last night killed Joe Allen, 35, shot over at Old Man mine No. 8.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, sometimes get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

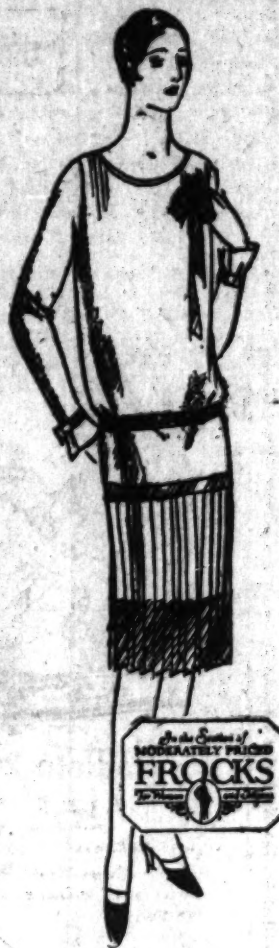

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region begin drinking lots of water. Also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is intended to flush clogged kidneys and help stimulate them to activity. It also helps neutralize the acids in the urine so they no longer irritate, thus helping to relieve bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everybody should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean.

Druggists say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in trying to correct kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

UNCLE SAM AND HIS NEIGHBORS.

There is a lot of noise just now about American policy in Mexico and in Nicaragua. As an innocent bystander, we wish some one would tell us what American policy in Mexico or in Nicaragua is. We think we have given rather more attention to our foreign relations with the various governments de facto or de jure south of the Rio Grande and in the isthmian and Caribbean countries than the average American, but we haven't yet discovered any policy in operation. There has been a current of tendency. There have been sporadic acts of intervention since the acquisition from time to time of territory or rights of strategic or commercial value. The activities and interests of American enterprises have increased, and with it, naturally, our increased political attention in the Caribbean and isthmian region. The possession of the canal has brought with it new interests and responsibilities, and all of this inevitably has enlarged our rôle in the affairs of this region. This is the stuff of which a policy may be made. But it is not a policy.

We have watched successive Presidents and secretaries of state in action and repose and we sympathize heartily with any Latin American statesman or patriot who can't for the life of him make out what we are about. Inevitably it is assumed that such a mystery must hide something sinister. Inevitably it is assumed that our acute inconsistencies are deceitful, our pronouncements hypocritical. This is the price we pay for lack of policy. Latin America distrusts us because it doesn't know our motives. There is from year to year, from decade to decade, what we are about. What Latin America does not suspect is the fact that we don't know what we are about. If it did it might not respect us more, but it would fear us less.

Perhaps no foreign government can evolve and carry on a real foreign policy, in the sense of a predetermined purpose founded upon definite objects, interests, or aspirations. We have no continuity in our state department and no common field of agreement between the major parties. Republican administrations vary widely. Democratic administrations vary widely. In their course of action and apparently in their principles. Grover Cleveland was farther away from Woodrow Wilson and William Jennings Bryan than from Theodore Roosevelt, whom he detested, while Wilson in Haiti and Wilson in Mexico will not read in history like the same man. Politics in the United States does not stop at the water's edge, as it does, in theory at least, with the British. The reason is, of course, that our foreign relations have not generally improved themselves upon the nation as of most moments, as we have such a problem as Nicaragua or the really simple Mexican land law problem made a partisan football in congress, with little hope of any clarification from the discussion or any crystallization of intelligence and consistent policy. There is general public ignorance of the basic facts and lack of interest in their implications, the Democratic politicians and papers are trying to discredit the executive and consequently the party he represents with no discernible effort to evolve a concrete policy for their own party, which they are likely to act the nation definitely to accept.

We do not think the President's action in Nicaragua or our diplomatic controversy with Mexico raises any respectable issue of principle or principled policy. We acquired by treaty with the Nicaraguan government certain public rights and interests. Certain American citizens have acquired in Nicaraguan certain rights and interests under Nicaraguan laws. We do not know that the validity of either these public or private rights is challenged. Our government is of opinion that they are endangered. If it is misinformed, its action is an error. This is an issue of fact. Except for unscrupulous partisans or the school of thought which assumes that anything and everything we do is wrong, we believe the nation will put greater reliance upon the judgment of the government and upon its sources of information than upon the contrary allegations of Nicaraguan or other partisans.

As to Mexico, we do not know that the President's critics deny our right or our duty to protect against or even to take action to discourage or prevent the confiscation without fair compensation of property rights acquired by Americans in Mexico in accordance with Mexican law in force at the time of acquisition, but it is a pervading emotion of fear or distrust. Sovereignty involves responsibility and respect for sovereign acts. There is no challenge of sovereignty in demanding that a sovereign state shall make good its own acts and commitments.

If Democratic leadership denies this, it should do so frankly and explicitly. Then we shall have an issue of principle. But its criticism seems to be relying upon an issue of fact. It is asserted that the government of Mexico merely intends to expose and cancel false property claims and that our government is concerned to protect them. It is intimated that the President is giving way to heavy pressure from American interests and religious influences which hope to use our government to destroy the constitutional government of Mexico and permit the reestablishment of a chaos.

government and of special privileges contrary to the will of a majority of the Mexican people. Here again we think the nation will prefer to confide in Mr. Coolidge's and Mr. Kellogg's honesty and moral responsibility, if they are genuine or corrupt, let us have such an important, if painful, truth exposed, not by innuendo or implication but by respectable evidence. There is with some Americans an assumption that no American in a foreign land has or can have any right which a foreign government is bound to respect, or at any rate any our government is bound to defend. In this mentality every American interest abroad is ex hypothesi morally indefensible, every American enterprise oppressive, every American claim ulterior, unjust, improper, or negligible. We do not think this mentality is shared by the American people generally and we think the President can rely upon their support in his efforts to protect legitimate American interests, private and public, in Mexico or Nicaragua. The landing of marines for the protection of life and property has ample precedent, and so far as Mexico is concerned the talk of war has no justification in anything the President or Secretary Kellogg has said or done. If there is any prospect of punitive action it will be predicated on the theory that Mr. Calles purposes confiscation without compensation of American rights indisputably established in Mexican law in force at the time of acquisition, or otherwise committing wrongs against our nationals, which the critics of Mr. Coolidge and Mr. Kellogg declare no one must even suspect him of intending.

TO THE LADIES.

Mrs. Ferguson is out as governor of Texas. The Texans seem to think that her jail deliveries, her "mercia," were about the most interesting achievements of her administration or her husband's administration, or whatever administration it has been. Her score was something over 3,000. It may be a record for the country. Our national genius inclines us to admire bigness. Even a scandal may be admirable if it is the biggest scandal. The world's greatest will always be regarded with a certain respect, and Texas manages to create the impression that it was not without pride as Miriam ran up her pardon score.

Some Texans say that the old man was the real talent in the sketch, which is probable, although there is nothing to indicate that the wife would not have been at least an eccentricity as governor if she had been a splinter or a widow.

Women who were demanding votes had some naive theories. One was that the feminine influence was needed in politics as a corrective and purifying element. It was the assumption that men had been making a mess of democracy and corrupt government either because they wanted to corrupt it because they were political half wits and couldn't stop it.

The whole experiment in government by consent of the people, here and elsewhere, was supposed to indicate a masculine failure either in honesty or intelligence. That was made even more delightful by the additional assumption that women were by nature disposed to be more honorable in political action and had been given an instinct which would lead them into intelligent voting without any preparation for it.

Many of the men voters were prepared to grant the women greater honesty of purpose. The sons of Anak are accustomed to relinquishing credit for the virtues to the women. Some of them knew on reflection that the attitude of women toward government is likely to be a little more flexible than the attitude of men. It is the wife who cannot see the sense of coming clean at the customs, and her husband usually has more trouble with her than the customs officials have. Frequently the husband is the best collector the government has. She is not afraid. He is. He may think it is downright immoral to add duties to the price of furs, dresses, or gowns. He may think that it will be downright unpleasant to pay.

A number of women in public life have had creditable records. The effect on popular government has not been astonishing, but there was no reason to think that it would be, weighing the assumptions for what they were worth. Equal suffrage didn't make an immediate political housecleaning and it has convinced many intelligent women that all the men voters were not nit wits or crooks and that some of the troubles of democracy grow out of the fact that it is democracy. It is an aspiration toward perfection with many hurdles in the way.

One effect of equal suffrage is a tendency toward greater sentimentality in political action. The men guess that the women like it and they turn back their faces toward the rear. The appeal to sentimentality among the republicans has been given a companion in the appeal to the noble womanhood. In addition to championing the fact it is polite to say it with flowers.

By and large we have doubted the eloquence and absorbed whatever shock there was in doing so. It hasn't made us much better and it hasn't made us much worse, unless the sentimental appeal gets worse. The men are content that the women should vote, and sensible women admit that voting isn't one of the things that requires only a will to do right.

Editorial of the Day

(Illinois State Register.)

THE PRESENT LEGISLATURE will accomplish a great good for the state of Illinois and the people if it enacts legislation providing for a separation of state and national taxes on general presidential election ballots. Very naturally, there are those professional Republican politicians who will ridicule such a suggestion. Those who think in terms of political advantage for themselves, rather than public service for the state, will take the position that because of the overwhelming Republican vote in Illinois the grand old party will make no concession which might involve the sacrifice of a political advantage. Politicians of this type do not care what principle is involved and are less concerned about a free and unfettered expression of public sentiment at the polls than in holding political trumps. But it is obvious to those who consider this proposition from a standpoint of fairness that the state ticket should not be involved with the presidential ticket in the general election. They know that with this state voting Republican in a national election by over half a million votes, the Republican candidate for governor and the Republican candidate for state office have a decided advantage over their opponents, regardless of the respective merits of the rival state candidates. The present system of printing presidential election ballots, with long lists of candidates for presidential electors, makes the ballot unwieldy and confusing to a vast percentage of the electorate, no matter how alert they may be.

With separate ballots it would be much easier and much more convenient for the voters of Illinois to express their preferences for President and governor. Enactment of legislation by this general assembly providing for separate ballots would mark it as an accomplishing a real achievement for the public good. Whatever the result may be of a fight for the enactment of such legislation, those who fight for it and support it will deserve and will receive vigorous public approval.

How to Keep Well

CAN WE PICK OUT THE PRETUBERCULOUS?

R. ARTHUR MASSEY thinks it is possible to pick out the pretuberculous child, that is, the child who is especially susceptible to tuberculosis and who must be especially well protected if he is not to pass up as a case of consumption. These are the specifications he gives:

The child is likely to be regarded as beautiful. He has bright eyes, an oval face, thin skin, narrow nose, and long thin bones. The skin is fine, dry, and delicately tinted. The whites of the eyes are clear and porcelain in appearance; lashes long and silken; eyebrows high and arched; hair soft, fine, and tending to be long; teeth about the average in quality and number.

There is a common tendency towards tonillar trouble. Palate, high and narrow. Neck long, thin, and with a marked forward curve. Adam's apple prominent. As a rule, some enlargement of the lymph glands can be felt. The chest is unusual in shape. In some cases it is unusually flat. In other cases the shoulder blades stick out like wings. The veins of the abdomen and chest walls show plainly through the thin skin.

There is generally a fairly plainly seen stripe of hair on the skin over the backbones. The arms and legs are long and thin. The waist can be bent backward and forward with ease. The child is chronically in a state of poor nutrition. One frequently gets such a history as: "The child has never seemed healthy or strong since he had the measles."

Children who belong in this type should be taught to open air schools whenever it can be accomplished. They should be properly clothed. They should be fed up and brought to a normal state of nutrition whenever it is possible. Strong influences are being started in favor of building preventoria. A preventorium is a home where children predisposed to tuberculosis are kept while they are being fed and taught in health habits, and while the consumptive are being moved from the household to proper sanatoria and hospitals. It comes in between the open air school, which gives the child care and education during the day hours, and returns it to its own home to sleep at night, and on the one side, the orphan asylum or children's home where ordinary routine care is given to ordinary, routine homeless children.

The children who are to be cared for in preventoria come in between the child with definite consumption, the lungs or tuberculosis of the bones and glands, on the one side, and, on the other, the children who need nothing more than daylight and fresh air. In the open air school and open window room, Dr. Massey's plan is to pick out the preventorium child on the ground of the fact that he is a child who is in such children are in homes where there is consumption.

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

How to the Line, let the type fall where they may.

THE UNFORGIVING.

I have denied my love. Oh, not in vain
Have I spent valourous tears on emptiness!
To make no word to give you, no caress
I have no folly up to life again.

I am no devotee of useless pain!
Go on your way, my lover, now confess
My strength to enemies. Nevertheless
After your going these few things remain:

I will be with you in the summer-rain,
And as their kisses will recall my lips,
Any camellia will find me little things
Upon your heart and me the constant guest

Carried in exile down your crooked lane.

COL. F. SMITH said he was going to present his credentials to the senate yesterday. But he didn't. He says he will today. Will he? Come on, now, gents, and place your bets, will Frank try to crash the senate today? Come on, gents, money talks, will he or won't he? Make your bets, gents, win, place, or show.

Did You See Him When He Wrote It?

No, no, no, dear R. H. L. Longfellow did not write "The snow had begun in the gloaming and busily all the night," etc. "The First Snowfall" was written by James Russell Lowell. Shame on you for not knowing!

If Denny King doesn't finish that story about the two Yiddish brothers or get his picture in the Sunday Trip like John promised "I'll-O, well, I'll do it anyway. But, Dick, I want again to the Yiddish King and Denny's mad or something about the Yiddish boys' story and he won't tell it. O, I must hear. Anyhow, tell me how it starts. DENTAL SOCIETY MAKES ISSUE OF PUPILS' HEALTH

School Safeguards Will Be Convention Topic.

If Illinois' exchequer is able to stand the strain of an annual appropriation of $1,000,000 for animal industry and more than $300,000 for conservation of fish and game, Chicago's yearly budget ought not to sidestep an expenditure of just $14,400 for the teaching of oral hygiene in the public schools.

This is part of the argument to be advanced by dentists, under the leadership of Dr. Harold Smith, chairman of the Chicago Dental Society's public service committee, at the organization's 63rd annual convention which opens on Jan. 25 for a three day session at the Drake hotel.

School Work Is Shown.
Another part of the argument will be the statistics for the school term of Sept. 7 to Dec. 31, 1926. The records for this period, as reported by Dr. A. P. Bair, supervisor of the work, show that 112,848 mouth examinations were made, 114 schools visited, 561 classroom talks given on the care of teeth, and 400 parent conferences were held.

During the convention a committee of delegates, together with representatives of the Catholic Women's league, the United Charities, the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs, the National Council of Jewish Women, and other associations will seek an audience with Mayor Dever and officials of the board of education, requesting assurance that the present work in preventive dentistry will be continued.

Last year, at the conclusion of a four year period of oral hygiene work in the schools, it was announced that, due to a deficit, the program would have to be discontinued. Protests from the organizations now joined together to petition the mayor, and the program is being extended the activities for a year.

Dental Profession Aroused.
"The amount needed annually for this service is only $14,400," said Dr. Smith yesterday.
"The dental profession and allied organizations are thoroughly aroused by the fact that there is any question regarding continuance of this health service."
"Many of the degenerative diseases of adult life are directly traceable to mouth infections during childhood."

AVOID UGLY PIMPLES

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after a few nights. Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating. No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cured with a dark brown taste, a bad breath, a dull listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face. Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c, 30c, 60c.

FARMERS ARE FIGHTING LOSING BATTLE, STORY TOLD TO PREACHERS

BY THE REV. W. B. NORTON.

The right of the farmer to be heard in considering the industrial situation was urged last evening at the Austin Presbyterian church by George R. Fox, secretary of the Illinois Agricultural association, before west side ministers. On Saturday Carl Vrooman, former United States assistant secretary of agriculture, will talk about the farmer at a luncheon in the Hotel La Salle. These speeches are a part of industrial week, sponsored by the Chicago Church federation.

"The American farmer," Mr. Fox said, "is fighting with his back to the wall to maintain the American standard of living. Industrial development and wages have advanced, farm values have declined, because all farm posts have increased faster than have the prices received for farm products. Farmers want to see agriculture placed on a basis of equal opportunity with labor and industry."

The Rev. James Myers, industrial secretary of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, speaking at the Y. M. C. A. hotel forum, said industry is organized "on the basis of benevolent autocracy, but agriculture nevertheless slaves and rebels are the inevitable products of autocracy. These types characterize American industry today, and it is time for America to make room for democracy."

ROMANTIC DADDY BROWNING GETS IN ANOTHER SUIT

New York, Jan. 18.—[Special.]—Edward W. Browning, the romantic real estate operator, was charged with criminal assault in a suit filed today by Renee Shapiro, 21.

The assault occurred four years ago, her complaint asserts, but the delay was occasioned by the fact, she explains, that her parents are orthodox Jews and therefore averse to her suing him.

Now she is 21, a free agent, and she's out for a slice of the Browning fortune, for which "Peaches," the millionaire's 18-year-old bride, and Mary Louis Spas, his quondam adopted daughter, also are suing.

The suit filed by Renee asks for $100,000 damages for "forcible and violent physical assault."

Browning's only comment, other than a general denial of this latest charge, was "What next?"

APPROVE HAUGEN FARM AID BILL IN REPORT TO HOUSE

Committeemen Say Help of U. S. Imperative.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
Washington, D. C., Jan. 18.—[Special.]—Governmental assistance is necessary in dealing with the agricultural problem, Chairman Haugen (Rep., Ia.) of the committee on agriculture contended today in a report to the house on behalf of the committee approving the Haugen farm relief bill.

The bill, which would increase the acreage of the federal farm program, is one of the most important pieces of legislation in the history of American agriculture today are beyond the power of individual farmers or of their relatively small organizations to solve.

"These problems arise because the prices of farm products are uncertain and unprofitable due to seasonal variations in yield and to competition with the products of European and Asiatic peasant labor and of new lands with low production costs."

The best judgment is that the remedy will be found in carrying products over from year to year, and equating a price based on supply and demand over a period of years rather than for one year, and in managing the surplus so as to make the tariff on agricultural products effective when necessary to maintain stable markets.

"To do these things requires a reservoir of money and credit after the manner of the capital stock of the federal reserve banks."

"Outside Aid Imperative."
"It is evident that it is impossible for American farmers in their present situation to acquire funds necessary to establish a great reservoir of capital to accomplish these purposes. The interest of the government and of the public in the solution of this problem is admitted. In their eagerness for relief the American farmers have asked the government to establish by law the machinery by which their marketed commodities may contribute to this fund through a small fee or charge collected as they move in commerce."

PICTURES FARM LIFE OF EUROPEAN PEASANT AS AN INSPIRATION

Urbana, Ill., Jan. 18.—[Special.]—Those who believe that the farmers of Europe are condemned eternally to the peasantry that has engulfed them for years and who fear that the farmers of America are headed for a state of peasantry must begin to revise their notions of the European farmer, it was declared here tonight by Dr. C. J. Galpin, in charge of the Federal Association of Farm Population and Rural Life, speaking before the associations of the thirtieth annual farmers' week at the college of agriculture, University of Illinois.

A "social miracle" that is making a radical change in the characteristics of the peasant is happening in countries in Europe, according to Dr. Galpin, who last summer studied living conditions on farms in thirteen countries.

In showing the ways and means that farm families of Europe are using to raise their standard of living, Dr. Galpin said: "These people live in houses that are worth looking at. Their interest in cooperative electric light and power, cooperative grain mills, and bakeries and cooperative community bath houses and club houses is highly entertaining. Their belief in education is inspiring. Their confidence in the swamps and the low lands of life is stimulating."

occurs, the Illinois house of representatives today did its share toward passage of a joint resolution urging congress to pass relief legislation for the farmer.

The resolution, which passed almost unanimously, was introduced by Representative A. Otto Arnold of Quincy. It provided that copies of the resolution be sent to the presiding officers of both houses of congress.

"Amend," said Minority Leader Michael L. Igoe, "so that a copy will be sent to the gentleman known as Calvin Coolidge, who doesn't seem to know what it's all about, and one to the treasury to Andy, that great friend of the farmer."

ASK CITY FOR INSPECTORS OF KOSHER MEATS

In an effort to stop the sale of ceremonially unclean meat to Jews of the city, the Union of Orthodox Hebrew Congregations appealed yesterday for twelve kosher meat inspectors for local butcher shops.

Abba Ramonsky and Samuel E. Newberger, representing the organization, asked the finance committee of the city council for the inspectors.

"Many butchers in the city are selling non-kosher meat upon our people," Mr. Ramonsky said.

Mr. Ramonsky explained that animals from which kosher meat comes are killed by rabbis and stamped in Hebrew letters. After three days, when coagulation prevents draining of the blood, as required by Jewish law, it is no longer kosher but tref, and forbidden.

Chairman R. A. Woodhull indicated that the committee would approve an appropriation for the inspectors.

FINISH FIGHT ON POLICE, FIRE PAY BOOST DUE TODAY

With lines of battle sharply drawn, the city council this afternoon is scheduled for a final fight on the problem of police and firemen's pay boosts when it takes up for passage the 1927 city budget.

Three weeks ago, for the first time in its history, the finance committee finished the annual appropriations distribution with a split in its ranks, a majority favoring a $100 a year raise, but to be paid at the rate of $150 until July 1. A minority held out for the full $300 from Jan. 1.

Reports were current last night that a settlement had been reached, but leaders of both factions declared their opinions were unchanged. A bitter debate is expected and possibly a deadlock.

FINDS WAY TO AVOID MUSCLE-LAMENESS

Athlete has simple method of keeping in perfect form

Athletes and trainers know how painful and disabling muscle-lameness can be. And they can tell you the best way to overcome it. "In my training work as an athlete," writes Frank B. Conover, of 175 South St., Jersey City, N. J., "I have used Sloan's Liniment for the past five years and found it most effective for soreness caused by vigorous exercise."

It is marvelous how aches and stiffness in lame muscles yield to the magic of Sloan's. Just a little rubbed on lightly and healing new blood begins to flow through the hurt place.

Away go "fatigue-poisons." Sore muscles limber up and stop aching. Try it. All druggists—35 cents.

Savory Dishes from Inexpensive Cuts

Beef stew needn't be uninteresting just because it's stew! Long, slow cooking and varied seasonings make the humble beef romp into a tasty dish.

Savory Beef
2 pounds beef—plate, shank or rump.
3 large onions sliced.
3 tablespoons bacon drippings.
3 tablespoons flour.
1 teaspoon salt.
1/4 teaspoon pepper.
1/4 teaspoon ground clove.
1/4 bay leaf.
2 cups water or meat stock.
2 tablespoons vinegar.
1 tablespoon ketchup.

Cut meat in small cubes and roll in flour, mixed with salt, pepper and cloves. Brown with onions in the fat. Add meat stock, vinegar, ketchup and bay leaf. Cover closely, simmer until meat is tender, about 2 hours.

Casseroles of Rice and Mutton
2 pounds breast of mutton.
1 teaspoon minced parsley.
1 minced green pepper.
1 teaspoon salt.
1/4 teaspoon pepper.
1/4 teaspoon ground clove.
2 cups stewed tomatoes.
3 cups cooked rice.
3 tablespoons grated cheese.

Cut meat into small cubes and roll in the mixed seasonings. Put alternate layers of meat and rice into a casserole, pouring the tomatoes over the top. Cover and bake in moderate oven 2 hours. Before serving, remove cover, sprinkle top layer with cheese, and allow it to brown.

Stuffed Breast of Veal
4 pounds breast or shoulder of veal.
1 cup bread crumbs.
2 slices fat salt pork.
1 teaspoon salt.
1/4 teaspoon pepper.
1 teaspoon sage.

Prepare veal for stuffing. Fill cavity with a stuffing of the crumbs, salt pork and seasonings. Roast in double roaster, or if cooked in open pan baste frequently.

Stuffed Flank Steak
2 pounds flank steak.
1 cup crumbs.
1/4 cup water.
1/2 teaspoon salt.
1/4 teaspoon pepper.
1/2 teaspoon poultry seasoning.

Wipe steak, remove skin, and with sharp knife cut a slit lengthwise through the steak to form a pocket. Make a dressing of crumbs, water, seasonings and minced onion, if desired. Stuff the pocket with dressing and close opening of pocket. Place in roasting pan, arranging cubes of raw carrots, turnips and potatoes around meat. Add 2 or 3 cups of water, depending on size of pan, cover and bake slowly, basting occasionally until tender, about 2 hours. When cooled, remove meat and vegetables and season the broth.

ADVERTISE IN THE TRIBUNE

TRUE BILL HITS CHARLES C. ROE; CHARGES FRAUD

His Campaign Fund Methods Under Fire.

Attorney Charles C. Roe, a former assistant state's attorney and at one time an ardent supporter of William Thompson, was named in a true bill voted by the grand jury yesterday charging him with obtaining money from a confidence game. He was charged with obtaining money from roadhouse keepers in the county, so it is charged, to aid in the present Thompson majority campaign, and was not a duly authorized campaign fund collector.

Roe, who styles himself on his literature as editor of The Chicago Republican, official organ of the Chicago Republican party, has been taken to the state's attorney's office, his former place of employment, several times during recent campaigns, because he accepted contributions for Republican candidates. Warnings to stop have been unheeded and yesterday the grand jury was called into action by State's Attorney Crowe to indict Roe to stop Joseph Sullivan and Thomas Maloney, both of Mount Greenwood, are

Vincenzo Cosmano, pal of Big Tim Murphy and for years a figure in Chicago's crime stories, bade farewell to Chicago yesterday.

Cosmano, his last legal resource against deportation exhausted, was placed with fourteen other alien undesirable aboard a train at the La Salle street station for New York, where he will be put aboard a steamer for Italy, his native land.

He was brought from the Lake county jail at Waukegan, where he has been held since the United States Supreme court decided against him.

Cosmano's son, Vincenzo Jr., 24 tentary, years old, arrived at the station too late to see his father. His wife bade him good-bye at the jail on Monday.

With Murphy, Cosmano was convicted of the 1925 Dearborn street station mail robbery and served a term with Murphy at Leavenworth penitentiary.

EMIGRATION FROM CANADA TO U. S. INCREASED 1,591

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
MONTREAL, Que., Jan. 18.—Immigration into the United States from Canada continues to increase. Figures were announced here today by the Montreal headquarters of the United States immigration service for the six months ended Dec. 31, 1926.

For the Canadian border, from the Atlantic to the eastern boundary line of Montana, the totals are: 1926, 54,547; 1925, 52,956.

Those entering west of North Dakota probably number another 10,000. Eighty per cent of this immigration consists of Canadians.

Government statistics issued today showed that imports into Canada for nine months of the fiscal year of 1926 amounted to $768,768,642, as compared to $857,749,181 for the same period in 1925. Domestic exports dropped, however, totalling $883,924,100, compared to $1,080,797,915 for the same period in 1925.

Yellow Cab

The Days of the Big Snow

—and every day and night since

Yellow Cab has kept steadily at the work of transporting snow-bound and half-frozen citizens. There was no slowing-up nor falling-down. The whole organization knew it was emergency time, when extra pressure was needed.

Every cab we own was in service. Every man was on his toes. Our 2700 cabs ploughed through drifts and cut paths to thousands of homes.

Normally we carry 70,000 people a day. During the three days storm and zero-wave, we averaged about 150,000 a day or a total of 450,000 people. This, in our estimation, is a supreme achievement, but it took a tremendous amount of hard work.

It was singular that the Yellows were almost alone in their efforts to take care of the people. There was a noticeable lack of other cabs. Evidently the owners preferred their own firesides—and they didn't want to strain their cabs fighting snow-drifts.

Yellow Cab was practically the sole cab-friend-in-need. And there is a reason for it—a mighty good reason why Yellow Cab kept on going when everything else rushed for shelter.

The reason is organization, system and the ability and will to serve. This is a cab SERVICE, run for the benefit and convenience of Chicago. It is a SERVICE that is not subject to the whims of individuals.

Its ability to serve is never better demonstrated than when emergencies arise—when the need is overwhelming—when the people are crying for help.

MERIGOLD TELLS HOW $577,000 ACQUIRED WINGS

Broke, He Signs Pact with the City.

Explanation of how $577,000 collected by Arthur S. Merigold from the city in 1920 and 1921 slipped through his fingers so rapidly that he is now insolvent, was furnished before Circuit Judge Hugo M. Friend yesterday.

Merigold was one of the real estate experts accused of getting exorbitant fees for appraisal work on improvement projects and named among the defendants in THE TRIBUNE's suit to recover the money for the taxpayers. The manner in which a small fortune was dissipated was revealed when Attorney Weymouth Kirkland and Howard Ellis, representing THE TRIBUNE, presented to the court an application for leave to deliver Merigold a covenant not to sue him. The agreement was not to be construed as a release of any other defendants to the suit. It was stipulated that the suit was stipulated.

Declares Merigold Insolvent
The covenant was joined in by Corporation Counsel Francis X. Busch, representing the city, and was signed by Judge Friend. Merigold, in return, relinquished certificates of indebtedness and turned over other claims having a total face value of $215,304.

The reason for the covenant, Attorney Ellis told the court, was that because of Merigold's insolvency no money could be collected from him, even if a decree for the full amount claimed was entered at the conclusion of the suit. The expenses of continued litigation for him would be large and reduce substantially his present assets or increase his obligations so that the chances of ultimate recovery of any money would be even more desperate, Mr. Ellis explained.

Merigold's earnings since 1921 have been practically nothing, it was revealed. In 1917 and 1918, his earnings from his real estate business were approximately $7,500. In 1919 he earned about the same amount from his business and collected approximately $19,000 from the city for appraisal work.

The Fat Years Arrive.
Then came the big years of 1920 and 1921, during the Thompson administration, when Merigold earned $24,000 from his business and obtained $577,000 from the city. That was a total of more than $600,000 received in two years and Merigold hasn't a penny of it left, it was shown. Following are the expenses which made that real estate expert insolvent:

Income tax to U. S. 1920, $20,414.92.
Income tax to U. S. 1921, $78,900.19.
To Arnold H. Brundage, $125,000.07.
To Charles M. Nichols, $27,000.
For political purposes, $25,000.13.
Three automobiles, $14,610.
Attorney's fees, $25,000.
Living and miscellaneous expenses, 1920-21, $1,000,000 a year, $147,000.
Household bills, $7,000.

To Take Court to Witness.
Brundage and Nichols are former eminent real estate experts to whom Merigold made the above payments. Nichols, who is ill, is to be questioned in his south side home this morning. Judge Friend having agreed to hold court in the sick room.

Michael J. Faherty, who was president of the board of local improvements during the time the experts were employed by the city, was the principal witness at the hearing yesterday. He denied he had signed a note in 1920 for $5,000, payable to the Everingham Printing company, for printing bills connected with the political campaign of that season.

GULP BEE STING POISON AS CURE FOR RHEUMATISM

Students Take Potions to Aid Science.

New York, Jan. 18.—[Special.]—Fifty students swallowed fifty capsules at the New York Homeopathic Medical college and Flower hospital today, starting their "six months' campaign" as human poison gauges.

Some of the capsules contained the fluid which the bee injects to emphasize his sting. Others contained four kinds of vegetable poisons. Twenty-five contained nothing but milk.

Limit Fancied Symptoms.
No student was allowed to know whether he swallowed poison or milk. In order to maintain their efficiency as toximeters it was considered necessary to keep them ignorant on this point. This is expected to limit fancied symptoms.

Bee and spider poisons are being tested to discover if there are any scientific basis for popular ideas of their therapeutic virtues. Some old timers say that bee sting is good for rheumatism. It is credited also with the power to benefit certain kidney conditions. In some sections professors of home medicine hold that a spider bite is good for the blood.

Today the medical profession has an open mind on certain notions that were formerly sacred. The success of malarial infection in clearing up paresis is one reason. It had been a layman's tale for years that malaria cured certain brain disorders.

Demand for Mosquitoes.
About 15 years ago two Austrian scientists looked into the matter. They found it effective in many hopeless cases, and today there is a vast demand in hospitals throughout the country for malarial mosquitoes. Vaccination against smallpox is another case in which folklore long preceded medical practice.

After allowing the poison to start working, each of the fifty students was subjected to many tests. These included taking the temperature, blood pressure, and blood count, checking up the knee jerks, looking for dilation of the pupils of the eyes, and studying the condition of the subjects in other ways. The impressions of the students as to their symptoms were jotted down.

An aid to business hospitality

The lunch club in The Fifth Avenue Building enables you to entertain your New York clients punctiliously and with convenience. There is also an excellent restaurant on the ground floor.

Here tenants find all the conveniences of a club, which include a valet service, handball courts and a well-equipped gymnasium. The building itself lies at the commercial heart of New York. All up-town and down-town is easily reached by buses, surface cars and subway. Two elevated lines are but two blocks away.

In the Nation's Leading Banks

GREAT banks are the very heart of modern business, they furnish the life blood of credit that keeps industry alive.

As would be expected from institutions of such fundamental importance, the leading banks have unusually high standards of office efficiency.

Office equipment that makes and holds a place for itself in a modern bank, must be able to give dependable service consistently.

Royal Typewriters are easy-writing—because of definite mechanical advantages, such as the roller trip escapement and the drop-forged steel carriage rails.

Royal Typewriters are long-lasting—because of the quality of the materials that go into them, and especially because of the highly skilled workmanship with which they are made.

And with every Royal Typewriter goes the extra asset of reliability—the achievement of veteran craftsmen, striving to find an expression in each machine produced of their ideals and of themselves.

The image shows a vertical strip of a newspaper page. At the top, there is a large, detailed illustration of a ship at sea, with a lighthouse or similar structure on the shore in the background. Below this, there is a smaller illustration of a person, possibly a woman, standing. Further down, there is a section titled "RESORTS" in bold, capital letters. To the left of this section, there are several small, square icons or symbols. To the right, there is a small illustration of a person sitting at a table, possibly in a restaurant or cafe. The overall appearance is that of a vintage newspaper page, with some text visible but mostly obscured by the strip's width and the quality of the reproduction.

One year ago, 11,500 to 12,000.

There was a complete change in the tone of the general hog market after a week opening yesterday, with practically all late influences of a strengthening character. Receipts fell about 10,000 short of expectations, totaling 33,000 to 34,000.

Many of the 10,000 hogs carried since Monday were held back on the strength of a moderate run of 16,000 in sight for today. Small buyers throughout the week added tone to the trade.

General average remained unchanged at $12.10, with top prices as Monday at $12.25. Large local packers entered the trade earlier than usual, favoring 225 to 250 lb butchers, which finished strong to 50 cents.

General selling the previous day. Doves obtained by big houses averaging around $12.10 were comparable to $12.10 doves purchased Monday. Lights were liberal and obtained at a slight decline.

Drivelling cattle supplies in face of fairly broad demand and weight firms, better grades of medium and weight heifers showing a tendency to advance. Receipts fell below expectations, the total at 10,000 being second smallest for Tuesday since last August. Shippers the first two days of the week have taken out a larger number than a week ago.

Good 1,475 lb steers reached $12.50, the day's top, also paid for 1,200 lb mixed yearling steers and heifers. Bulk of beef cattle brought $9.00 to $11.50, a few plain 1,300 lb averages at $9.25. Activity featured trading in butcher stock at strong prices. Calves advanced $1.00, selected yearlings selling up to $14.50, highest in nearly a month. Stockers and feeders were steady to strong.

Lamb Prices Best

Supplies increased after Monday's bulge of the market and lamb prices reacted yesterday, falling mostly 25c after a limited shipping demand had been satisfied at week to slightly lower prices. Packers absorbed bulk of better grades of woolskins at $12.75 to $13.00, a scattering to shippers bringing $13.10 to $13.25. Lambs shown six weeks reached $11.75.

Matured stock held firm again, despite the break in lambs. Choice handy weight fed western ewes on local account brought $12.50. Western averaging 114 lb reached $9.00, also paid for a few 140 yearlings. Good 100 lb yearlings, 113.25. Feeders were active buyers of $12.50 to $13.00 feeding lambs. Receipts at Chicago for today are estimated at 9,000 cattle, 16,000 hogs, and 16,000 sheep, against 11,718 cattle, 16,470 hogs and 14,480 sheep the previous Wednesday, and 15,122 cattle, 25,922 hogs and 23,423 sheep, a year ago.
